Given to: _____

From: _____

Given to: _____

From: _____

Given to: _____

From: _____

Given to: _____

From: _____

Given to: _____

From: _____

Given to: _____

From: _____

Given to: _____

From: _____

Given to: _____

From: _____

To redeem your certificate, log on to www.witchschool.com and click on the Not a Student Yet link and sign up as a basic member. You will then be taken back to the login page. There you will login with your email and password. If you are already a basic member, login with your email address and password. On your opening announcements page will be a link to put in the code that appears on front of this card. This offer is good for 1 membership per account and the link will disappear once you have redeemed it. At the end of one month, if you have enjoyed the courses, you can sign up for a supporting membership though the upgrade link on your page to continue your studies.

To redeem your certificate, log on to www.witchschool.com and click on the Not a Student Yet link and sign up as a basic member. You will then be taken back to the login page. There you will login with your email and password. If you are already a basic member, login with your email address and password. On your opening announcements page will be a link to put in the code that appears on front of this card. This offer is good for 1 membership per account and the link will disappear once you have redeemed it. At the end of one month, if you have enjoyed the courses, you can sign up for a supporting membership though the upgrade link on your page to continue your studies.

To redeem your certificate, log on to www.witchschool.com and click on the Not a Student Yet link and sign up as a basic member. You will then be taken back to the login page. There you will login with your email and password. If you are already a basic member, login with your email address and password. On your opening announcements page will be a link to put in the code that appears on front of this card. This offer is good for 1 membership per account and the link will disappear once you have redeemed it. At the end of one month, if you have enjoyed the courses, you can sign up for a supporting membership though the upgrade link on your page to continue your studies.

To redeem your certificate, log on to www.witchschool.com and click on the Not a Student Yet link and sign up as a basic member. You will then be taken back to the login page. There you will login with your email and password. If you are already a basic member, login with your email address and password. On your opening announcements page will be a link to put in the code that appears on front of this card. This offer is good for 1 membership per account and the link will disappear once you have redeemed it. At the end of one month, if you have enjoyed the courses, you can sign up for a supporting membership though the upgrade link on your page to continue your studies.

To redeem your certificate, log on to www.witchschool.com and click on the Not a Student Yet link and sign up as a basic member. You will then be taken back to the login page. There you will login with your email and password. If you are already a basic member, login with your email address and password. On your opening announcements page will be a link to put in the code that appears on front of this card. This offer is good for 1 membership per account and the link will disappear once you have redeemed it. At the end of one month, if you have enjoyed the courses, you can sign up for a supporting membership though the upgrade link on your page to continue your studies.

To redeem your certificate, log on to www.witchschool.com and click on the Not a Student Yet link and sign up as a basic member. You will then be taken back to the login page. There you will login with your email and password. If you are already a basic member, login with your email address and password. On your opening announcements page will be a link to put in the code that appears on front of this card. This offer is good for 1 membership per account and the link will disappear once you have redeemed it. At the end of one month, if you have enjoyed the courses, you can sign up for a supporting membership though the upgrade link on your page to continue your studies.

To redeem your certificate, log on to www.witchschool.com and click on the Not a Student Yet link and sign up as a basic member. You will then be taken back to the login page. There you will login with your email and password. If you are already a basic member, login with your email address and password. On your opening announcements page will be a link to put in the code that appears on front of this card. This offer is good for 1 membership per account and the link will disappear once you have redeemed it. At the end of one month, if you have enjoyed the courses, you can sign up for a supporting membership though the upgrade link on your page to continue your studies.